Prague, 7 September 2023

Sven Trautner to become VIG Re's Chief Strategy Officer

VIG Re, the reinsurance company of Vienna Insurance Group, announces today that Sven Trautner will join the company as its Chief Strategy Officer (CSO) and Head of Corporate Development effective from 1 October 2023.

In this role, Sven will coordinate VIG Re's corporate strategy, its implementation and execution of strategic initiatives in order to foster the financial growth, competitiveness, and market positioning of the company. He will be also responsible for the corporate project management. Sven Trautner will report to Tobias Sondorfer, Member of the Board of Directors.

Sven joins VIG Re from Munich Re, where he served as Senior Innovation Manager responsible for the Continental European Business Building practice. Prior that he worked for over ten years at BayernLB bank, where he held various managerial positions in financial controlling, strategy, and project management business areas – both in Munich and New York City.

"We are very happy that we could win Sven as Chief Strategy Officer. The growth ambitions of the Company in combination with a fast changing economic and technological environment requires a dedicated setup to steer our strategic priorities and our business going forward", commented Tobias Sondorfer, VIG Re's Board Member. He continued: "Sven's track record of developing growth strategies and driving innovation, as well as his experience across the reinsurance and financial services industry, make him an ideal fit for VIG Re."

"I am very excited to be joining VIG Re," said Sven Trautner. "The reinsurance environment currently changes in many facets resulting in shifts of the needs of clients, and stakeholders. VIG Re is in an excellent position to accompany these developments with innovative solutions while putting its clients at the core. I'm really looking forward to further extend VIG Re's footprint in the industry", commented Sven Trautner on his new appointment.
